Busic Pitches Well, Too, but the Men Back of Him Make Damaging Errors and the Brooklyne Win Again - Philadelphia Wins Another Come from Boston-The Clevelands Shut Out the Cincinnatis, Chicago Beats Pittsburgh, and St. Louis Downs Louisville - Rain at Baltimore,

The New Yorks were again beaten by the Brooklyns yesterday and dropped to the .500 mark. The Philadelphias won another game from the Bostons, who have now lost six straight. The Quakers have taken sixth posi-tion, and are only five points behind the fourth club. The Baltimore-Washington came was stopped by rain after three innings had been played, which enabled the Clevelands, who whitewashed the Cincinnatis, to increase their lead to five points. Tebesu's men, by the way, are the Erst team to play 100 games this season. The Chicagos pulled the Pittsburghs down sev eral points, and are only three points behind Ewing's men. St. Louis beat Louisville again. and there was much joy in Von der Abeville. The results:

BROOKLYN, 7: NEW YORK, 2.

New York cranks will be glad when the series with the Brooklyns ends to-morrow. Fouts's men this season have caused more trouble for Doyle's men than any other team, and to date have won eight out of the eleven games played. Yesterday 8,000 persons went to the Polo grounds to see another battle between the local rivals, and once more the Harlemites were thrown down. Young Daub pitched remarkably well, holding his opponents down to four hits and two runs. He had plenty of speed and curves, and barring five bases on balls, displayed excellent control. The Hrooklyns played magnificently in the field, especially Tommy Corcoran, who accepted thirteen difficult chances in artistic fashion. The New Yorks, on the other hand, while doing some good work, made four errors that were responsible for all of the runs scored by the Eastern Park men. Rusie pitched finely in some innings and poorly in others. He couldn't make the onlookers believe that he had alame arm, however, for, when he wanted to, he shot the ball over the plate like a cannon shot. When he used his slow ball, however, the Brooklyns invariably nailed it asfely. He was hit safely ten times and gave four bases on balls, but he struck out eight men, which made it appear that he was doing something wonderful.

Manager Doyle, although in uniform, did not come near the players' bench during the game. He sat on the grass in deep centre field and watched the game for about seven innings. Then he disappeared. In Doyle's place at first base Park Wilson gave a miserable exhibition. He only made one error that could be scored in the book, but that alone cost three runs. In covering the bag he was as slow as molasses, and several right-field bits went past him which should have been knocked down. He partially made up for his poor fielding by driving a two-bagger to left in the first and scuding home one of the two runs scored by New York. In the last inning Davis and Rusie made some fatal blunders.

The Meef's umpriring. When he walked across Doyle's men than any other team, and to date have won eight out of the eleven games played last inning Davis and Rusie made some fatal blunders.

The most pleasing feature of the game was Tim Reefe's unpiring. When he walked across the field toward the grand stand before the game he was instantly recognized and received an ovation. Everybody arose and cheered the popular ex-New York pitcher, and Tim guiped down a lump in his threat as he doffed his blue cap again and again. Those who saw him remembered him as the greatest pitcher in his day, and even if his umpiring had not been good he would not have been abused.

But, on the contrary, Keefe acquitted himself nobly. No better umpiring has been seen on the Polo grounds this year. He was quick and always correct in his base decisions, and on balls and strikes his judgment was almost perfect. There was no kicking, and even though the New Yorks lost, the game was enjoyed by lovers of fair play. Tim has reason to feel proud of his fairness and excellent judgment as a League umpire.

The Brooklyns were first up, and Fuller re-umpire.

The Brooklyns were first up, and Fuller retired Griffin. Shindle made a hit, but on Corcoran's grounder to Fuller a double play sent the New Yorks to the bat. Fuller got a base on balls and waited while Tiernan fined to left. Then he went to second on Van Haltren's out, and Davis waiked to first on balls. Wilson cracked a clean two-bagger to left, on which Fuller scored, but two good throws caught Davis at the plate.

The Brooklyns scored three runs in the third inning when they should have had none. La-inning when they should have had none. La-chance singled, and took third on Dalley's base hit to right. Daub struck out, and Dailey reached second on a passed ball. Four balls to Griffin filled the corners, and Shindle then sent an easy grounder to Wilson. The ball rolled through his legs, and Lachance scored, Dailey an easy grounder to Wilson. The bail rolled through his legs, and Lachance scored, Dailey taking third on the error.

Corcoran sent a fly to Van, on which Dailey came home, and a hit by Anderson brought in Griffin. Daily flied to Fuller, and the score stood 3 to 1. With two out in New York's half Mike Tiernan smashed a corker to left. It was good for three bases, but a wild throw by Anderson allowed the silent man to run clear to the plate. Then Van Haltren foul flied to Shindle. After that Daub had the New Yorks where he wanted them.

The New Yorks pulled out of a very tight hole in the fifth. Griffin and Shindle opened for Brooklyn with safe hits, and both moved up on Corcoran's sacrifice. Anderson then popped up a fly over near the right field foul line. Tiernan tried to catch it, but the bail dropped safe. Mike quickly lined it to the plate, and Griffin was caught between third and home, where, after a chase, Davis ran him down. Daly rapped a hot one to Davis, who pinned Anderson to earth, making three out.

Then the New Yorks in their half lost a splendid chance to its the score. With one out Farrell hit to left for two bases and took third on a single by Rusie. But Fuller popped one to Lachance and Tiernan rolled a little bounder to Daub.

In the sixth the Brooklyns were prevented from scoring by Rusie's good wook. Tredwey freedway.

In the sixth the Brooklyns were prevented from scoring by Rusie's good work. Tredway opened with a two-bagger to right, but was neatly thrown out at third on Lachance's hot neatly thrown out at third on Lachance's hot one to Rusie. Dailey sacrificed and Daub struck out for the third time.

The New Yorks went to pleces in the ninth, and Foutz's men clinched the game. Lachance made a hit and Dailey got four bails. Daub nit to Rusie, who, instead of throwing to first, turned around and stammed the bail widdy to Davis. That filled the bases, and on Griffin's fly to Burns, Lachance ran in, Shindle rolled one to Wilson, but Rusie, who covered first base, dropped the ball, and again the corners were covered.

Corcoran knocked the ball to Davis, who bed.

Corcoran knocked the ball to Davis, who had an easy throw to Farrell to make, but instead feerge fired the leather low and wide, and Dailey scored. Anderson struck out, but Tom Daily hammered a two-bagger to left, sending home Daub and Shindle. He was left, however, as Tredway grounded to Wilson. The score:

GOLF HANDICAP AT ST. ANDREW'S. Daniel Chauncey Wine with a Net Score of Eighty-nine Strokes,

Only a small field turned out for the fourth monthly handicap at the St. Andrew's Golf Club resterday, but the contest was an interest-ing one. The best card was handed in by Daniel Chauncey, who has not played on the links since he defeated A. L. Livermore in the tie for the H. O. Tallmadge trophy, in the Memorial Day match. He made the rounds in 47 and 51, his net score, less the handicap of 9, being 80.

The grass is so rank that the course is not in as fine condition as it might be, although no trouble is spared in cutting and rolling it. Despite this, the scores were up to the mark in most cases. Mr. Livermore, who made such a fine showing at Turedo, did not quite do himself justice yesterday. The tee for the fourth bole, from which Willie Park made his drive of 243 yards, has been raised to the top of the nearby stone crag, which bothered many of the players somewhat.

John Reid, the St. Andrew's President, made his first appearance on the links since June and made a good showing. He has been salmon fishing on the Restigouche. Mr. Reid made a record in the play up the hill for the fifth hole. doing it in 3. A long drive up the hill, followed doing it in 3. A long drive up the hill, followed by a full drive with the brassey, brought him dead on the putting green, when he heled out with an easy put. Mr. Chauncey, who played with Mr. Reid, made the creditable score of 4 for the fifth hole.

Other players who have not been seen at St. Andrew's since June were Judge Horace Russell, who has been playing at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club, and H. O. Tallmadge. Luck did not favor Judge Russell, although his approach and putting shots were well executed. J. G. McGree, who finished second with 91, net, might have made a much better showing, but for an unkind chance that brought him to grief at the oak hole. He was under the shade of the big tree in 3, but he topped the ball twice, getting into a bad spot, and taking 8 to hole out. In driving for the home hole, Mr. McGree was bunkered by the ditch, which settled his chances of finishing first.

The next event at St. Andrew's will be the team match between the home club and the Country Club of Brookline, fifteen on a side, to be played next Saturday.

SPIRITED POLO AT NEWPORT. Win for the West Chester Country Club

-The Braw for Pairs. NEWPORT, R. L. Aug. 17 .- In the best exhibition of polo of the week, the Country Club of West Chester beat the Myopias of Boston to-day on their handicap, and won the handsome West Chester individual cups for teams of four. Foxhall Keene backed the New York players and won quite a stake on them. Budd Appleton of Boston backed the Myopias, and lost his money. Appleton stuck to his team with defeat staring him in the face, and wagered even money at the opening of the third period. Then it was evident that, unless the West Chesters went to pieces, the Myopias could not score against them fast enough and so it turned out. Lawrence Waterbury played a great game for West Chester, twice running the ball the whole length of the field unassisted. His brother, J. M. Waterbury, Jr., rode very recklessly.

Fotter's back play was also excellent. Shaw was at the front for Myopia all the time. Gardner supported him well. Agassiz's back play saved several goals and straightened out several dangerous situations for his team.

The pair matches will be played on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday next. The drawings made to-day resulted as follows: L. Waterbury and Reginald Brooks vs. Moses Taylor and Mr. Stowe; James M. Waterbury, Jr., and E. C. Potter vs. R. L. Agassiz and partner: F. B. Fay and Edgerton L. Winthrop, Jr. The prizes are silver cups. evident that, unless the West Chesters went to

The Association game at Central Park yesterday between the Harleins and volumbias produced some fine bowling of the part of both sites. I. Webster, for Harlein, took six wickets for six runs, and F. J. Loughlin accomplished the "bat trick," while for Columbia A. F. Harding took five which is for fourteen runs. The Harleins won, as was to be expected, by this score:

BAD DAY FOR FAVORITES.

HERMIA THE SOLITARY FIRST CHOICE TO WIN AT AQUEDUCT. aptain T. | Eliza Belle, and Pay or Play

the Three Good Things that Went Wrong - Roller, Resurrected, Wins, Thanks to Simmo's Persistent Edding. The attendance at Aqueduct yesterday was of goodly proportions, more than 3,000 persons go-ing to the picturesque course near Jamaica Bay. The racing was not up to high-water mark, favorites being beaten in all but one of the six events. Captain T. did his usual act, being beaten by the light-weighted Mirage in a contest that was not remarkable for fast time. This was the fourth race, at a mile and a sixteenth. Abingdon, Harry Alongo, and Charade were withdrawn by their owners, while the stewards would not let Charles Baker put Sheedy up on Little Tom, because Bill Daly was running Captain T. in the same race. Mr. Baker was exceedingly angry, but was forced to withdraw his gelding and stand by while Mirage lowered the colors of the favorite.

The talent began the day well, playing Hermia to beat the rather ordinary lot opposed to her in the dash at five furlongs. Frank O'Leary lost no time in getting the favorite to the front, and it was only a romp for the daughter of Hermence to win by two lengths from Unity. Rebea was a fair third. The fact that Simms had the mount on Lulu

T. gave Delong's mare quite a following for the dash at a mile, for which Chiswick was an evenmoney favorite. The field ran closely bunched to the upper turn, where Sheedy shot out of the ruck with Mendicant and won handly, with Chiswick second. Captain Jack was third, a short head before Diabolus, but Daly's colt was disqualified, and third position given to the brother to Diablo. Lulu T. stopped to nothing short head before Diabolus, but Daly's colt was disqualified, and third position given to the brother to Biablo. Lulu T. stopped to nothing when it came to racing.

Jack Elilott sent the patched-up Roller to the post in the third race, for which Ameer and Roundelay sold about equal favorites, and the stout little son of Dutch Roller was well played by the Dwyer faction. Simms had the mount, and his perseverance won the race, Ameer going away at a heart-breaking pace and outsprinting all but Gold Dollar, who was first into the homestretch by three lengths. In the run home simms kept pegging away at Roller, and his pertinacity was rewarded when Ameer began hanging fire a furlong from the wire. Jockey Bill kept plurging away at Roller until he got in front, when he put down his hands and was content to win by a length. Roundelay beat Gold Dollar for third money.

Captain T. was at to 2 shot for the dash at one mile and a sixteenth. Mirage went right out, and, forcing the pace, made the Captain chuck it up at the end of half a mile. O'Leary let the big three-year-old rate along in front, and when the Captain made play in the stretch, moved away again and won by a length under a pull. Eagle Bird was last all the way, in spite of Penn's kicking and riding.

Charley Oxx's Royal Rover, by Prince Royal, out of Gypsy, was the best-looking youngster in the fifth race, but 15 to 1 could be had against him, Eliza Belle going to the post an odds-on favorite. When the flag dropped Royal Rover shot away from his opponents and won without being headed, Penn riding out and making victory doubly sure. Eliza Belle beat Ben Naiad for second money.

Pay or Play was held at prohibitive odds for the concluding race at a mile. Golden Gate led all the way and won by ten lengths from Truepenny, who in turn beat Buckeye as far for second money. Pay or Play was under a pull for half a mile. He then burst a blood vessel, and McCafferty had to pull him up in the stretch.

ROUNDSMAN'S BITTER ROOT STARES Nothing in the Alleged Job on Friday When Argentine Won.

SARATOGA, Aug. 17.- An excellent card, with several good things, brought out a very good atndance at the Saratoga track to-day. Theday was fair and the track fast.

The principal event on the programme was the race for the Bitter Root Stud Stables of the race for the Bitter Root Stud Stables, of the value of $2,000, for two-year-olds. It was won by Houndsman, who beat Merry Prince, the favorite, a short head, Ramiro finishing third. The stewards to-day investigated the race which Argentina won resterday. After the race the ring was full of talk about Riley Grannan laying up against Au Revoir and backing Argentina. The investigation completely cleared every one suspected by the ring of compileity in an alleged job, Summaries: PHUST BACK.

John Kelly came home from Buffalo yesterday, bringing with him the fast mare Aunt Delliah that Ed de Ceronea recently purchased from Bob Stewart of Kansas City. The mare trotted second to Klamath at Buffalo last week in 2:10-14. Kelly will start her at Fleetwood Park in the 2:11 class, and then campaign her through the Eastern circuit.

Joe Young, the sire of the dam of Joe Patchen, is now nineteen years old. He was on the turf and a winner in his class twelve years ago at the lowa and Kansas meetings, proving himself to be one of the gamest campaigners of his day. Last week at Holton, Kan., the old horse was brought out and driven an exhibition mile in 2:18%, lowering his previous record of 2:19%, made in 1888.

It is stated upon good authority that Monroe made in 1888.

It is stated upon good authority that Monroe Sailsbury is acting in the capacity of consulting trainer for Robert J. in the preparation of the Hamlin pacer for his race against Joe Patchen and John R. Gentry. Sailsbury will start his own colt Directly, and the California turfman says the pudgy black three-year-old will have a chance. Directly is reported to have stepped a half in 1:0116 at Buffalo last week in his work.

Tom Raymond with Klamath and the little Tom Raymond, with Klamath and the little black dog, arrived at Fleetwood Park yesterday to await the opening of the Grand Circuit trotting meeting, which takes place next week. It was Raymond's intention to take the horse West from Buffalo, but Secretary Hedges prevailed upon the Oregon man to bring him here for the $5,000 free-for-all, in which he will meet Azote, Benzetta, and other topsawyers. When Klamath came upon the track vesterds. Hedges prevailed upon the Oregon man to bring him here for the $5,000 free-for-all, in which he will meet Azote, Benzetta, and other topsawyers. When Klamath came upon the track yesterday afternoon for a jog the horsemen on the club house plazza identified him at once from The Sux's description of the great trotter telegraphed from Buffalo at the time of his race against Beuzetta. His raggedly roached mane and sleepr. sore-toed jog make him a cheap-looking animal, when not moving at speed, but he is a very different horse when Raymond says "to and get'em, Cookey," and he squares away at a two-minute gait. Secretary Hodizes says Klamath was timed a quarter in his last race at Buffalo in '99 seconds, and those connected with his stable say that he can step a quarter in '28 seconds or better. When strung out on a fast track Raymond feeds his horse wholly on Oregon wheat, cut "in the milk" and cured, straw and sill. "Cookey" never wears a muzzle, although he is a big feeder, his owner honding to the belief that a horse in training ought to have all he wants to eat. Klamath gets it, and there is flesh on his ribs in spite of the fact that he has trotted eleven races within the past two months.

NEWPORT'S COACHING PARADE. The Amateur Whips Make a Fine Showing

in Their Annual Dispiny. NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 17.-Under clouded skies the annual coaching parade took place this afternoon, there being twelve coaches in line, which is a much better showing than was anticipated. The foreneon was showery. Shortly after 12 o'clock J. D. R. Baldwin's coach appeared on the scene in charge of the coachmen. Instead of crowding about the start, as in previous years, the citizens spread out along Bellevue avenue, where they had a better opportunity to see the parade when it was fully under way. The parade started just before 1 o'clock, at which time President Augustus Jay wheeled into line with his coach. Mrs. Jay occupied the box beside her husband. Next came the coach of Perry Belmont, with Mrs. Waterbury on the box seat. August Relmont, with his wife beside ox seat. August reemont, with mis wite cessed bim, was next in line. The fourth coach was tooled by J. D. R. Baldwin, with J. V. Parker occupying the box seat, and four other gentlemen instead of the usual two ladies and gentlemen. J. J. Vah Alen, with Mrs. J. C. Waterbury on the box, followed. Then came Senator Weimore's coach, driven by William Forbes Morgan, whose wife was also on the box seat.

The seventh coach in line was Dr. Seward Weib's, with Mrs. W. D. Sioane on the box. Eugene Higgins handled the ribbons on the next coach and had his sister, Mis. Mortimer Brooks, with him. Theodore A. Havemeyer then bowied along with Mrs. Oelrichs on the front seat. Mr. Watis Sherman and Mrs. Sherman were on the front of the next coach. O. H. P. Belmont came next, having on the box with him Mrs. S. H. Fish. Miss Consuelo Vanderblic occupied a position as one of the guests. The last coach was that of Prescott Lawrence, who had his wife with him on the box.

Each coach had a full complement of guests. The route of march was down Bellevia evenue, along Ocean Briye, where they were reviewed by the President at the Graver Point Fishing Club. Then the line continued to the Country Club, where luncheon many of the coaches were driven to the polo games. him, was next in line. The fourth coach was Frank Bosworth Injured White Diving. Frank Bosworth, bozing instructor of the new Manhattan A. C., had a narrow escape from death last week. While diving into a shallow part of the plunge bath at the club he struck his head and received a deep gash. He was unconscious for a few minutes. The doctors say that had his head struck a few inches feither back he would have been killed.

DRAGOON'S SEPENTERNIH WIN. The Vaquero Runs Aground with Victory in Sight and Lots Cells Win.

A stiff southeast wind, a glorious day, and a large number of entries, all tended to make the first annual regatts of the Huguenot Yachs Club of New Rochelle yesterday a "piping" success. The rachts were divided into two classes. Most interest was centred in the 34-rater class, in which the Dragoon, Vorant II., and Achusla were entered.

The Dragoon left her two rivals far astern soon after the rachts crossed the line, and finshed an easy winner in a stiff breeze. The victory was a popular one, as it marked the seven-teenth win for Dragoon thus far this season, a record which surpasses that of any yacht in this country, irrespective of class.

The starting gun for the larger boats was fired at 12:35 and ten minutes later the starting signa was given to the smaller boats. The start for was given to the smaller boats. The start for the latter presented a beautiful spectacle, all the yachts, with very few exceptions, crossing the line together. A mishap occurred in the cabin cat class, the Weacel being disabled owing to her steering gear becoming useless, in the 21-rater class the Vaquero, which was looked upon as a sure winner, grounded atter finishing the first leg. Punch, a boat in the open cat class, capsized.

The steamer Blackbird, with club members and guests aboard, followed the yachts.

The course for thirty-four to twenty-seven raters was:

From Huckleberry Island, thence to the Gangway husy, thence to Mailnicock busy, jraving Sands Point and clid Hen to starboard. From Maithicock to the red busy off Scotch Caps, and thence to starting line. Dis-tance, fourteen nautual miles.

Chectaw and Sunshine the Only Boats to Go Over the Course Properly. The first of a series of three special races for prizes offered by Vice-Commodore F. T. Adams of the Atlantic Yacht Club were sailed on the bay off the Atlantic Bay Ridge Club house yesterday. While there was a goodly entry list, the heavy wind apparently scared the yachtamen, and the result was only five boats started. The prizes for the races are two cups presented by Vice-Commodore Adams, one for sloops and one for catboats, which are to be awarded to the sloop and catboat, respectively, which make the best average record on corrected time in the three races; and also individual prizes to be presented to the winner in each day's race, in sa where two or more boats sail. Com peting yachts are required to sail in strictly cruising trim, and must carry boats, as provided in Racing Rule X. The courses sailed resterday in Racing Rule X. The courses sailed yesterday were:

Die tance, once around the course, three artel hand. tance, once around the course, three miles and a half. The yachts got the preparatory signal at 3 o'clock. The wind was fresh from the south-southwest, and all the racers crossed on the port tack. The Choctaw was the first away, at 3.08:50, the Lobowana, her only competitor, being disqualified for crossing the line the wrong way. All the cats were handleapped, their actual times of crossing being as follows: Tabitha, 3:13:10; Sunshine, 3:16:10; Ethel, 3:17:40. The Ethel carried away her gaff on the first round and retired, while the Tabitha turned the first mark on the wrong side, and was disqualified. The Choctaw therefore won first prize among the sloops, and the Sunshine among the cats. Summary:

The Molus and Cluduo Run Afout and Are Disqualified. SHELTER ISLAND, N. V., Aug. 17. The third special ciub race of the Shelter Island Y. C. was sailed here this afternoon. More beats contested in to-day's race than have been entered for any previous contest this season. The race was sailed over the usual twelve-mile course, from the club house to Greenport to East Marion and Hay Beach Point and return to the club house, twice over. The weather was all that could be desired for racing. There was a fine whole-sail breeze blowing during the entire race. The Dilemma won from the Lynx and Consternation with case, the latter coming in second. In the second-class catboat series the Ciudao won on elapsed time. catboat series the Cludao won on clapsed time, but she and the Æolus ran afoul of each other and both were ruled out and the race was awarded to the Vinata.

The Dandy made the fastest time over the course of any of the beats in the race except the Lillemma, and easily won from the Eisket and Tenax. This is the last club race of the season with the exception of the samual ladies' regarts, which is to be sailed next Saturday. The boats finished to-day as follows:

VIN-KEEL BLOOPS. Marguerite SECOND-CLASS CATBOATS. Theo Towl J. F. Beck with Weber & Keim THIRD-CLASS CATBOATS. Nr. Mills J. T. Bartlett T. A. Howell (Unknown) SPECIAL CLASS. Mr. Atha Theo, Brigham Balance of the Haces at Buffalo Declared

Burrato, Aug. 16.—A heavy rain fell at 20 clock, making the track so mustdy that it was decided to de-clare the remaining races of the meeting off. Fitz-simmons gave as exhibition.
